Project Period: July 1, 2020 –September 30, 2021

Subject: Addendum to Memorandum Of Understanding signed between The American India Foundation Trust and WinVinaya Foundation in July 2020.

Dear Mr. Sivasankar Jayagopal,

This has reference to the project SAMEIP (SBI Foundation And Microsoft India Employability Initiative for Persons with Disabilities) FY'2020-2021, implemented in Bangalore in partnership with WinVinaya Foundation for the above stated period. Considering the progress on ground and scope for providing additional funds for the program, we are hereby revising the scope of work and the budget amount appropriately to reflect the additional activities envisaged. The following clauses have been substituted by the new clauses as reproduced below.

Term:

Existing Clause: "This MoU will commence from July 1, 2020 and end on the completion of the requirements of this MoU or September 30, 2021 whichever is earlier and can be extended by mutual agreement in writing".

New Clause: "This MoU will commence from July 1, 2020 and end on the completion of the requirements of this MoU or December 31, 2021 whichever is earlier and can be extended by mutual agreement in writing".

Objective:

Existing Clause: The objective of the program is to equip 100 persons with disabilities from 18 to 30 years of age on technical employable skills and place them in BFSI (Banking Financial Services Insurance) sector.

New Clause: The objective of the program is to organize boot camp training programs to upskill project beneficiaries with IT skills, Business Process Automation and customer support roles in a duration of 4 to 8 weeks with new additions in the course curriculum.
